Dear Pro-Chancellor,

You spoke with me about the wish of Lady McNicoll and other friends and colleagues of the late Lady Huxley to make gifts of funds to this University so that illuminated vellum leaves might be purchased and placed in the University Library in memory of her.

I am very glad to approve receipt of donations by the University for this purpose.

It is my understanding that Lady McNicoll may be drafting an appeal letter for your signature. I believe it would help if the letter indicated that I have approved the appeal and that cheques should be made out to the Australian National University so that a formal receipt with potential benefit for taxation purposes can be provided to donors by the University. Since there may be some technicalities involved, I wonder if I might have the draft of the letter looked at over here before a final version is prepared.

Yours sincerely,

D.A. Low
