Parchment, 126 x 128 mm (131 x 103 mm), 14 lines; ruling in ink; lines 9 mm apart. Possibly from a 2-column leaf

Script A large, clear, round late caroline minuscule of Italian type. Long s on the line at the beginning or middle of words; short round s at the ends. Ascenders rather squat, so that the script has almost the appearance of majuscule (particularly l; only the f and s are really taller than the rest), e caudata, or ligature with r in form of 2. Double-bowled g, curved feet on all minims, minuscule a. Some angularity of letter forms reminiscent of Beneventan script

Abbreviations A few standard abbreviations, such as a line above a letter indicating m ending, p for per, b for bus

Punctuation Punctus on the line indicates main pause. Punctus elevatus with tick and point the lesser pauses

Provenance Unknown. Possibly written in Italy. The date is Wanley's.
