Fragments, Missal

<https://fragmentarium.ms/overview/F-6fmk>

Fragments from a twelfth-century Missal recycled by a bookbinder as vellum pastedowns on the inside of the front and back covers of a volume of printed texts dating from the sixteenth century.

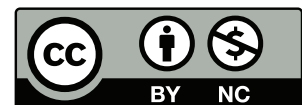

Contents

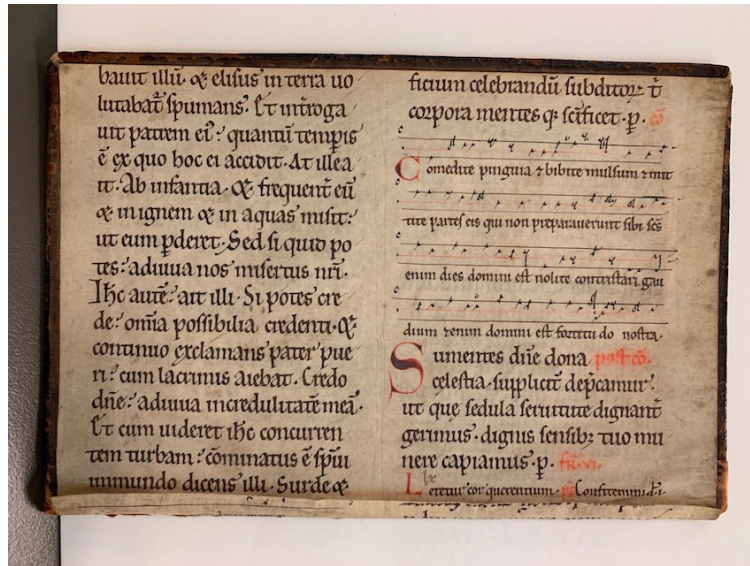

- Fragment 1: The office is the Proper of the Season opening with Mark 9, verses 19-25. The second column begins with the Secret, followed by the Communion (taken from Nehemiah 8: 10), Postcommunion, then the introit for feria vi, Letetur cor querentium dominum and Psalm CIV Confitemini domino et inuocate nomen eius. The Communion verse is written on three-line staves with neumes (Messine punctum, podatus, clivis and pressus).
- Fragment 2: The office is the Proper of the Season, opening at Colossians 1, verses 12-14, followed by Matthew 9s verses 18-20. The second column begins with the end of a prayer, followed by a reading for feria iv, Romans 11, verses 25-28.

The transcription attempts to maintain the original punctuation and line-breaks. Hyphens are added for words broken at the end of a line. Expanded scribal abbreviations are underlined, decorated capital initials indicated in bold and rubrics in red.
