

Fragment of a Latin manuscript page from the Gregorian Decretals, folio 15r. The text is written in a Gothic script with red initials and rubrics. The main text is in two columns, with a large initial 'C' at the start of a section. There are several marginal notes and a large diagrammatic structure on the right side of the page, consisting of a central vertical line with several horizontal branches, resembling a tree or a flowchart. The text discusses ecclesiastical law and procedures.
