

This image shows a single page from an old manuscript, folio 170a. The page is filled with dense Latin text written in two columns. The script is a clear Gothic hand. At the top right, there is a large, ornate red initial 'R' followed by the beginning of a sentence. In the middle left, another 'R' is part of a larger word. The text discusses various sins and their consequences, mentioning sins like pride, envy, and gluttony, and their effects on the soul and body. The paper is aged and shows some water damage or staining.
