A photograph of a manuscript page with musical notation and Latin text. The page is aged and shows some staining. The text is written in a Gothic script. The musical notation consists of square neumes on a four-line red staff. A ruler is placed at the bottom of the page for scale, showing centimeters and millimeters. The ruler has the text 'STANDARDGRAPH No. 9061' and a barcode with the number '4 014509 011197'.
