

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Gothic or similar, on aged, stained parchment. The text is arranged in a single column, with some lines appearing to be part of a list or a series of entries. The parchment shows significant wear, including discoloration and some loss of material, particularly on the left side. A vertical red line is visible on the left side of the text block, possibly serving as a margin or a section separator. The text is written in dark ink, and the overall appearance is that of an old, well-used manuscript page.
