

ius hoc autē dixit et spū itū quē accēptur e tant creo res in e um alle lūa alle lu ia In die sancto penthecostes Dixit domi nū repleuit orbem terrarum alle lūa et hoc quod conti net omnia scientiam habet uocis alle lūa alle lu ia alle lūa ✠ Ergat deus et dissipentur inimici eius et fugiant qui oderunt eū a facie eius & s Alle lūa De ni sancte

The manuscript page features Gregorian chant notation on red four-line staves. A large, ornate initial 'I' in blue and gold contains a miniature of the Pentecost, showing the Virgin Mary seated in the center, surrounded by the twelve apostles. The page is decorated with intricate floral and foliate patterns in blue, green, and gold. A ruler and a 'STANDARDGRAPH' scale are visible at the bottom of the image for reference.