A fragment of a manuscript page, likely a lectionary, featuring Greek text in a cursive hand. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words and characters marked with diacritics (breathings and accents). At the bottom of the text block, there is a small cross symbol. To the right of the text, there is a drawing of a human skeleton, showing the skull, spine, and ribcage. The drawing is simple and appears to be a sketch or a reproduction of a larger image. The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear.
