

Fragmentarium

Table arithmétique (Table of Arithmetic) from a manuscript, featuring several grids of numbers and letters. The page is labeled "Fragmentarium" at the top left.

The page contains several tables of numbers and letters, likely representing arithmetic operations or sequences. The tables are arranged in a grid-like structure, with some tables being larger than others. The numbers and letters are written in a medieval script.

Key features include:

- Multiple grids of numbers and letters, some with annotations like "Copulatum sequitur" or "SVP. PARTIENS".
- A red circular stamp in the center, possibly a library or ownership mark.
- The page is labeled "Fragmentarium" at the top left.
