

Fragment of a medieval manuscript page, likely a calendar or liturgical text, written in Gothic script. The text is arranged in three horizontal sections, separated by large, decorative initials. The script is dense and characteristic of the 12th or 13th century. Some words are written in red ink (rubrication), such as "Elyatque" and "Elyatque". The parchment is aged and shows signs of wear, including a large tear on the left side.
