

Handwritten text in Gothic script, likely a manuscript page. The text is dense and appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a chapter section. The script is well-preserved in the right column but significantly obscured by a large, dark, irregular stain on the left side of the page. The stain covers approximately the left half of the page's width, leaving only a narrow strip of text visible along the gutter.

Handwritten text in Gothic script, continuing from the right side of the left page. The text is dense and appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a chapter section. The script is well-preserved and clearly legible.
