

 This is a manuscript page from a Graduale, featuring musical notation on red staves and Latin text in Gothic script. The text is written in black ink, with some initials and rubrics in red ink. The musical notation consists of square neumes on a four-line red staff. The text is written in a Gothic script, with some words in red ink. The page is aged and shows signs of wear, including a small tear at the bottom left.

Et laudabilis et glorio sus in se cula Tract Qui re gis israhel in gen de qui deducis uelud o uem io seph Qui se des super cherubim ap pare co ram eistrem bema min et manasse Ex cita do mine potentiam tuam et ue ni ut sal uos fa ci as nos hic dñs no sine flat or dñs qui trib pue epla ad thessalon gam uos qua finit dici tur naat dñs